Website & Logo Update

Exciting news! On Wednesday, November 12th, we will meet with Rebel River Creative for a final walkthrough of the brand-new St. Andrew's Church website before it officially goes live on the internet. During that meeting, we'll also be presented with three logo prototypes designed especially for St. Andrew. Soon after, everyone will have the opportunity to see the options and help decide which design best represents the church. I'll be sure to keep everyone posted as this creative process unfolds, we're getting close to unveiling a fresh new look for St. Andrew!
